EXPECTATIONS and EVALUATION

Evaluation: We will have three integrative (theoretical/self reflexive/activist) papers and a final project. You will participate in one group reading presentation, one group community service presentation, and be an active and quality participant in the class/ community providing positive contributions to our activities and discussions. We will ask the group to evaluate your "public" work, and ask each student for a self-evaluation, both to be considered in the earning of final grades. Full attendance and participation by you in class, community service activity, group exercises, including but not limited to email, field trips, campouts, ropes course, films and pot- luck dinners is expected. Absences deprive the group of the richness of your feeling intellect.

Required Texts and Topics:

Visions of Community -- Problems and Issues:

Kempers, Community Matters

Alienation and Hope: Case Studies in Community Making

Kanter, Commitment and Community

Skinner, Walden Two, Reissued

Covington, Salvation on Sand Mountain

Thomsen, Living Poor: A Peace Corps Chronicle

Visioning Community in the 21st Century

Oldenburg, Great Good Place

Loeb, Soul of A Citizen
